

GEORGETOWN SOUTH PROJECT INFORMATION RELEASE

Strachan Community Office Now Open

On Saturday, October 2, 2010, the Strachan Community Office officially opened its doors. Dozens of our neighbours dropped between 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. to enjoy a hot drink, learn more about the Georgetown South Project, and meet the Strachan Community Relations Team: Robyn Connelly, Carmen Nisbet and Erik Olaveson.

To mark the opening – and the community's Nuit Blanche festivities – we teamed up with Toronto origami artists Yuri and Katrin Shumakov of Oriland to create an origami art installation from recycled flyers, a unique feature to welcome the neighbourhood to our new community office.

With our doors now officially open, we are looking forward to working with our neighbours to ensure they are kept up-to-date on the project status and that community questions and concerns are addressed during the design and construction phases of this project.

Please feel free to drop by during office hours – we looking forward to seeing you!
